

Job Opportu

admin - info@cooltanarts.org.uk

A Postcard to the World is a Mail Art project documenting Londoners' feelings about the Olympic & Paralympic Games 2012.

Over the coming year, CoolTan Arts will run a pan-London project, including a series of workshops and exhibitions, called A Postcard to the World

. This exciting and diverse project, with international reach, will give participants the chance to create original postcard artwork, sharing their thoughts and feelings about London 2012.

This is an exciting opportunity for a project co-ordinator to work in a dynamic arts centre run by and for people with mental distress.

You will be helping us to celebrate London's hospitality by welcoming the world ? with CoolTan's unique internationalism, diversity, friendship and understanding. The role involves overall Project Co-ordination and Creative Development in line with project plan, as agreed with the Project Manager and Lead Artist. The successful candidate will have project co-ordination experience and will have experience in community education, community arts and mental health.

Full Job Description here

Please apply with CV and covering letter to Susan McNally: susan@cooltanarts.org.uk

or phone 020 7701 2696

Deadline: Monday 6th August