This information sets out the terms and conditions for service delivery from CoolTan Arts.

CoolTan Arts is an award winning arts organisation. We have five awards from the Volunteer Centre Southwark 2007, and a graduate of CoolTan Arts won Active Citizen of the year award 2007. We have also received one award from Ernst and Young for the best organisation to volunteer with and our project director has two Southwark Women of the Year awards 2007/08.

What we offer

CoolTan Arts offers involvement in a unique arts project run by, and for people with mental distress. We promote positive mental health and wellbeing, with the aim of bringing about a change in how participants perceive themselves. We work towards enabling people to gain greater focus in their lives, and to re-establish their relationship with society. We achieve this through quality arts education and programs, generating professional outcomes such as public exhibitions and various initiatives underpinned by advocacy and social enterprise principles.

Activities

1. Arts workshops such as visual arts, batik, video, poetry, performing arts and sculpture
2. Yoga workshops
3. Product design projects, involving working in teams and learning work related skills
4. Exhibitions, public art projects, and websites which help break down the stigma of mental distress
5. Gallery/performance space offering other local community projects somewhere to exhibit
6. Volunteering programmes offering meaningful engagement and the opportunity to learn useful skills

A six monthly review meeting with your client and a member of CoolTan's staff to assess progress can be made if appropriate.

Check our website, www.cooltanarts.org.uk, for all workshop details.
